Was Jesus Christ an anti-Semite Also ?

Who Spreads anti-Semitism?

The real anti-Semite is the Jew who is hateful, spiteful, vengeful, purblind and betrays his public trust. Were it not for the large number of Jews, who are aided and abetted by the wily "smart" Jews, dealers in usury and in capitalized and commercialized vice, there would be no anti-Semitism. They create it, they spread it and they finally become the victims of their own viciousness, dragging the whole clan with them because Jews are clannish and not individualistic. They wail for individualistic treatment, but they dare not separate themselves from the clan and denounce the clan's misdeeds. The few that dare are ostracised by the Jews themselves. So was Baruch Spinoza, he was cursed and excommunicated.

de Aryan, an anti-Semite ?!

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

I should have been glad to carry on the discussion over the radio, had it been possible. I doubt if a debate is possible in any near future, although our people might well consider it if and when I am again in or near San Diego.

I respect your single tax or what you call "individualist" views even if I do not altogether agree with them. What disquiets me is the charges of anti Semitism which have reached me since I saw you. I think that anti Semitism is not only an evil in itself, but a measure of illiberalism in a community. An individualist like yourself ought to judge individuals on their own merits or demerits.

Sincerely yours,
NORMAN THOMAS,
235 Est 22nd St., N. Y. City.

Mr. Norman Thomas,
235 East 22nd Street, New York City.
Dear Mr. Thomas:

I received your letter of Oct. 29 in which you state that you would have been glad to carry on the discussion over the radio, had it been possible and that your people might consider it, if and when you were again near or in San Diego.

It is not necssary for you to come here, I am offering to meet you any place in the U. S. A., at a convenient time, to carry on a public debate, either before a large audience, or preferably on the radio, on the subject of SOCIALISM vs. INDIVIDUALISM, and I shall pay my share of the expense.

You are again mistaking me for a single taxer, because I follow the outlines of the Henry George doctrines, but evidently you have not kept abreast of the evolution of this school of economic science. I represent a line of thought which stands for the abolition of all taxes, so we could not possibly be single taxers, or land taxers. We represent the view that taxation is an evil, an imposition on the ignorance, trustfulness and gullibility of the people. For the expense of government we propose to sell the government service on the open market for what it will bring on a voluntary basis; in other words, government must earn its keep and not lord over its "subjects". If it is worth nothing, it is not worth paying for it, or keeping it.

In this proposed debate I do not intend to limit myself to the economic side of the discussion. The individual has a spiritual, a mental and a physical side in his being. I propose to discuss it from these three aspects, and show that his religion is individualistic first, before it can be socially applied; his science is individualistic first before he can know anything; his physical wellbeing is individualistic according to the First Law in Nature, before he can collaborate with his fellows. And I propose to show that no matter what your peculiar brand of socialism be, it is cockeyed and of necessity plays havoc, as has the NEW DEAL which has stolen too much Marxism and Socialism and played heck with U. S.

You write "What disquiets me is the charges of anti-Semitism which have reached me since I saw you . . . An individualist like yourself ought to judge individuals on their own merits or demerits."

Well, if you want to be disquieted by charges, that is your headache not mine. As far as anti Semitism is concerned, I am being called so many names that I would figure something to be wrong if nobody were to call me more names. What is anti Semitism? So much is said about it but nobody comes out with specific terms. Please, don't suppose that I am defending myself against the charge. I let it stand for what it is worth; what is quite evident in your language is that you already take it for granted that the charge is evilly true and begin lecturing me that as an individualist I should judge people on their own merits. How do you know that I don't do that very thing?

By the way, have you ever read John 8, 44? And if that makes Jesus Christ an anti Semite, do you suppose for one moment that when I have to chose between following His exeprience with THEM and being afraid to speak out according to my own observations, that I would for one single moment hesitate to follow in His foot steps?

Supposing, for the sake of argument, that I were anti-Semite of the type that Jesus would be according to John 8, 44; did you stop to consider the truth of my charges against the Jews involved? Are THEY a sacred cow who can do no wrong?

Have you read the resolution passed by 200 Jews in New York addressed to the Communist brethren in Russia, which was headlined in the Los Angeles Examiner and its text is as follows: "The Jews of America, jointly with all decent Americans are waging the fight against Hitlerism with all their might and determined to intensify and extend this fight . . . . " It was signed by 200 "Jewish leaders" and was carried by the wire service in all leading papers.

Do you realize that not one single Jewish organization of prominent Jews came out in protest of this generalization of the "Jews of America . . . are . . . determined to . . . extend this fight" . . . by which Communism is to be enthroned in Europe with a victory of Stalin over Hitler and Mussolini.

If the "Jews of America are determined to extend this fight" now going on in Europe between two murderous and equally despotic systems, why is it not proper to call THESE JEWS anti Semitic, because they are declaring for the intensification and extension of this war, while I, and you claim also, am interested in localizing and ending the war to stop the insane carnage and destruction.

Is it proper for 200 Jews to speak in the name of all American Jews, without a protest being registered by the INDIVIDUAL Jews while it is wrong for me to indict the whole caboodle of them, on the basis of this declaration? There is such a thing as accessory to a crime and when Jews remain silent while they are represented to favor a certain extension of the war, is it improper for me to call attention to this conspiracy?

Please, don't get me wrong; I am not defending myself against the charge of anti Semitism. It does NOT CONCERN me in the least; you are disturbed by it, not I. I consider the source and let it go at that.

Sincerely, C. LEON de ARYAN.

WAR DRUMS

Lady Mary Crewe-Milne, Duchess of Roxburghe, arrived in New York, and was the center of attraction at a swanky party where the guests paid well for everything with the profit going to the British War Relief. The Duchess was a house guest at the Oyster Bay estate of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Schiff, who gave the party. Mrs. Arthur Loew, Mrs. Frederick L. Lutz and Mrs. R. P. Rose were among the hard-working assistants.

Wheeler Hits Britain For Toy Shipments

WASHINGTON,— Sen. Wheeler (D-Mont) showed the senate a half-dozen toy soldiers, cannon and searchlights he said were manufactured in Great Britain out of lead, copper and brass and shipped to the United States for sale.

Asserting that American manufacturers were being denied these materials because they were needed for defense production, he asked his listeners why it was necessary for American cargo vessels to ply the waters of the war zones if Britain had shipping space for toys.

'IMPEACH ROOSEVELT', WOMEN PICKETS URGE

WASHINGTON,— Seven women, carrying banners saying "Impeach Roosevelt, Traitor to the United States," established a picket line on Pennsylvania ave., in front of the White House.

They said they represented "We, the Mothers Mobilized for America", of Chicago, and "Women United" of New York and New Jersey.

The Eye that Sees All and Knows All

THE AKASHIC RECORDS

Did you know that everything you think, say, feel and do is recorded, forever; recorded in such a way that anyone who knows how to unscramble the record can reproduce it again, as plainly, as clearly as you hear a telephone conversation, or a transcribed radio program, or see a film unreeled at a picture show. Do you realize that the record is so correct that you not only see the action, hear the voice, but that the very feelings are reproduced, so you perceive something which even the screen and radio has not been able to do. And this is not fancy, this is fact. Hear about this ancient recording device next Wednesday nite at 8:45, when Mr. de Aryan will present the first of three series concerning the akashic records, the cosmic records, which are no myth, but record everyone of your thoughts, your feelings, your words, your actions. There are no secrets but the seeing eye knows it all.

The next program of "de Aryan Comments" will be heard over KGB next WEDNESDAY night, 8:45.

CHRISTIANITY IS "ANTI-AMERICAN"

DENVER,—Col. Early E. W. Duncan, commanding officer of the army air corps' Lowry Field, has announced that he will class as "out of bounds" for soldiers, any church whose pastor "continues to preach against true Americanism by opposing the definite policy of the president."

"We are preparing for war," Duncan said.

"I will not, under any circumstances, permit soldiers to attend any meeting or visit any place," where they might "be instilled with thoughts and ideas harmful to morale."

Christ Held More Than War Victory

SPRINGFIELD, Mass.,—Dr. Frank C. Laubach, of Dansalan, Mindanao, Philippine Islands, said "getting Christ before men and into men is far more important than the question of winning this war."

"Men will not stop war until they have a more complete surrender to Christ than we now have," he said in an address prepared for the 132nd annual meeting of the American board of foreign missions and a regional meeting of the Congregational Christian churches. .

The Mystery of Money

(Over K G B , Wednesday nite 8:45, Nov. 5)

One of the things the Constitution provides is that Congress shall have power to coin money and regulate the value thereof.

The other thing is that no person shall be deprived of life, liberty or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation.

If you would only study these two provisions and apply them in practice, elect a congress and other legislative and judicial officers to enforce and execute these two fundamental tenets of our form of government, all our troubles as a nation would disappear forthwith.

What is money? It's a mystery, say some, especially those who make usury their life's business. But there is no mystery about it whatever. Money is the token of exchange. Now it can be handled honestly or dishonestly. It can be deflated and it can be inflated. In that case somebody is being robbed, namely the people who exchanged their goods and services for the token of the value of such goods and services. Money is nothing but a system of accounting. Figures don't lie, but liars figure and when you catch them at it, they turn around and with solemn face proclaim that you cannot possibly know anthying about money, because it is a mystery. Beware of the mystery mongers wherever you find them; they are out to rob and eventually murder you if you persist in exposing their crimes. That is what wars are about.

Governor Marriner S. Eccles of the Federal Reserve Board dispelled the whole mystery of the money system when testifying before the Congressional Banking and Curency Committee in 1935. Said he: "In purchasing offerings of Government bonds, the banking system as a whole creates new money, or bank deposits. When the banks buy a billion dollars of Government bonds as they are offered—and you have to consider the banking system as a whole, as a unit—the banks credit the deposit account of the Treasury with a billion dollars. They debit their government bond account a billion dollars, or they actually create by bookkeeping entry, a billion dollars wherewith they buy the bonds".

Did you catch on to it? The Federal Reserve Bank, as the agent for the banks, is a private corporation owned and controlled by the international bankers. Eccles informed the Congresional Committee that this private corporation does not buy any bonds with their own money, but creates new money on the basis of the government demand for bonds. In that way, we the people have given the power to a private concern to create money and bond the U. S. for that money. By taxing ourselves, we pay them interest and principal, on nothing but the special privilege we gave them to create money out of nothing.

Orders to Finland

This business of saving the world sometimes becomes complex. About a year and a half ago the United States was cheering Finland on in that little country's unequal fight against Soviet Russia. Her debt payments to the United States were suspended, even though she insisted that they could and would be made on time. Washington, however, wanted to encourage Finland to fight Russia to the bitter end and returned at least one payment after it had been made.

All of which makes it a bit perplexing now to hear the government of the United States order Finland to stop fighting Russia and make peace with her traditional enemy. The alternative is that she can stop expecting American assistance if she does not comply. Unofficial word from Finland is that she is not necessarily fighting for the Nazi cause but that she feels it imperative that the boundary dispute between Russia and Finland be settled, definitely and finally. A year ago we would have encouraged her. Now, we tell her she must desist. And we aren't in the war, but Finland has been ravaged by countless Russian raids, her cities have been wrecked, much of her territory despoiled. What would we tell a nation that attempted to dictate to us under like circumstances?—San Diego Union.

2 to 1 Against F. D. R.

SAN FRANCISCO,—Quiet, almost reticent, Secy. of the Interior Ickes told newsmen he wasn't going to do anything about the San Francisco power situation after the city turned down for the eighth time a plan for city power distribution. Ickes had sponsored the power bond issue, defeated by a vote approaching 2 to 1.

S. F. Seeking Way of Selling Power Output

SAN FRANCISCO,—Having declined for the eighth time to put itself in the retail power business, San Francisco began looking today for some method by which it might sell the output of the Hetch Hetchy municipal power plant to a private utility.

By U. S. supreme court interpretation, the Raker act, under which the city operates the Hetch Hetchy plant on government property in Yosemite National park, specifically forbids this practice.

Amendment Sought

First attention, therefore, was turned to the possibility of amending the Raker act and, as an alternative or interim measure, of obtaining a further postponement of the effective date, now set for next June 30, of the court mandate prohibiting sale of Hetch Hetchy power to the Pacific Gas & Electric Co., which owns the city's power distribution system.

Representative Rolph (R-Calif) has instituted action in congress to achieve both objectives.

Voted down, 112,857 to 66,120, in a general municipal election was a charter amendment which would have authorized issuance of $66,500,00 in revenue bonds for purchase by the city of the P. G. & E's, distribution lines.

LA GUARDIA CALLED LEHMAN BY HIS NAME

When Thieves Fall Out

During his recent campaign for the mayoralty of New York City Fiorello LaGuardia found himself opposed by Governor Lehman, Democrat, who supported William O'Dwyer of Tammany Hall. LaGuardia, speaking Yiddish, his mother tongue, promptly called Lehman, who speaks the same mother tongue, a "goniff". In this Jewish election Americans, of course, lose heads and tails, also they don't speak Yiddish as fluently as the heads of the two Jewish parties, the Democratic and Republican, in New York.

For the information of Americans who are guillible enough to imagine that they have two national parties, "goniff" means a thief and a robber, not a crook. A crook and a cheat is honorable mention among the Yiddishers, especially if one succeeded to cheat a GOY, or Gentile, but a "Goniff" is one who robs a Jew and that is the lowest rung in the scale of the Yiddish gutter.

British Land Grabs

Henry LaBouchere, 1798-1869, twice elected to Britain's House of Commons, wrote a poem, "Where Is The Flag of England?" first verse reading:

And the winds of the world made answer;
North, South and East and West;
Wherever there's wealth to covet;
Or Land that can be possessed;
Wherever there are savage races
To seize, coerce and scare
You will find the vaunted ensign,
For the English flag is there.

It is reported that since Sept. 1, 1939, Britain has taken nearly eight million square miles more territory than Germany, with 150-million more people than Britain has, viz.: "in the Atlantic, the Faroe Islands, Spitzenbergen and Iceland; in Africa, the Belgian Congo, Ruanda and Unadi, Italian Somaliland, Eritrea, Libya, Ethiopia, Cameroons, French Equatorial Africa; in Asia, Iran, Iraq, Syria, Lebanon; in the Pacific, Dutch East Indies, Tahiti, New Caledonia; in the Caribbean, Curacao, Aruba and Bonaire; in South America, Dutch Guiana."

Contraband

So far there is no clear cut case of an unarmed American ship engaged in legitimate traffic without contraband on board being sunk.—Oswald Garrison Villard.

Country Without Taxes

"In the whole American Hemisphere, Venezuela is the only country that owes no money, the only nation that has no taxes."

This is due to Press. Gomez refusing to sell oil land. Oil land belongs to the nation. Oil operators pay a royalty (i. e. Land-Rent) of one barrel of oil out of each ten or its market value to the government. The fly in the ointment is that public service and public works provided with this Land-Rent Revenue makes all other land more valuable; that is, puts people who need other kinds of land further in debt for it. Equity demands that Land-Rent Revenue be collected from all kinds of land, Oil and mineral land and city business sites and home sites would provide the bulk of revenue. Farm landholders would pay but little. Moreover, city taxes on buildings and stocks of goods, being abolished, would not come out to consumers hidden in prices which finally strangles business.

Mrs. Goerner Protests Husband's Arrest

Asst't Attorney General
Wendell Berge,
Washington, D. C..

Honorable Sir:

The authorities here handling the Ernst Goerner case have apparently bungled the case.

To date Mr. Goerner has been confind to jail 9 weeks on inability to furnish excessive bail. Which in reality according to the Constitution is no bail.

The authorities admit that there is insufficient evidence to hold Mr. Goerner but in spite of all the facts at hand Mr. Goerner is being kept a prisoner. His health has been impaired by this unjust confinement, as well as has my own due to mental anguish over this cruel treatment of my husband.

The whole thing is a monstrosity. Totally illegal from the outset. .The warrant issued based on false oath and confused affirmation as proved by certified transcript of testimony. Same warrant was used for illegal seizure of papers and effects. Bail excessive and unconstitutional as inability to furnish proves. No sufficient cause for arrest as examination of papers seized and testimony of government witnesses proves. Why not a Habeas Corpus to determine whether a person can be lawfully detained?

Prejudice of Prosecuting Attorney & Commissioner who handled the case at preliminary hearing, who accused Mr. Goerner of being the "master-mind" of an organized effort to obstruct the draft on no evidence.

The newspapers reported on October 4th that indictments were returned and up to this moment Mr. Goerner has not been served with any papers or copy of the indictment nor has he been notified of disposition of his case.

Will you please review Mr. Goerner's case to date and order the authorities here in Milwaukee to act like grown-up men and not children and dismiss Mr. Goerner's case as it should be done. There is more than a face-saving proposition concerned here —there is an innocent man's health, his good name and the safety of his property at stake.

I am not pleading for mercy—but I am demanding that JUSTICE be given in this case. NOT favors.

Respectfully,
MRS. ERNST GOERNER.

The Blind Shop Racket

In previous articles we took up the dictatorial temper and its effects upon the blind people, at 410 Market street, where Emmet Copeland holds out; a hog at the public trough. No sooner did the first article appear in THE BROOM than the office help at 410 Market decided to get in on the "good side" with the Boss and circulated a "petition" which every empolyed blind person was asked to sign, denying in toto the allegations contained in THE BROOM. These "circulators" don't seem to realize that they are merely proving our contention of dictatorship. Of course, the blind people signed, or else.

Copeland, in the meantime, was out in Yellowstone Park having a good time, on vacation with his family. In contrast with many of us taxpayers who pay his bills but cannot possibly take a vacation, especially not to Yellowstone Park. Upon his return Copeland decided to reward the signers of that "petition" by serving them ice cream and cake, something unheard off before THE BROOM had turned on the spotlight on the Blind Shop racket. Copeland hopes to buy them now with ice-cream and cake, but we have strong suspicions that he did not pay for the treat out of his pocket but took the blind people's own Coca Cola fund to give them a "dutch" treat; how thoughtful and kind!

Of course, now that the spotlight is on, a nice halloween party was thrown, also, and who paid? The Coca cola fund, of course. And is Copeland strutting about as the "benefactor" of the blind workers! It's he that gives them work. Fact of the matter is the Federal Government gave an order for navy mops, allocated through the American Foundation of National Industries, which takes care of the blind people in the U. S.

To top it all, Copeland gave an extra bonus to the blind, three weeks ago, by giving even the totally blind "indirect service pay", for cleaning up the shop. We are happy he gave it to them, they need it; and since THE BROOM is after the racket in the Blind Shop, we are happy Copeland is beginning to get so jittery he even feeds them icecream and cake, to make a good showing when the state department's investigators came down here. As we promised, we shall keep on sweeping up that Blind Shop and keep Copeland jittery enough to treat the blind as he should, even though it is comic to see his antics.

Good THOUGHT

Good WORD — Good DEED

PROCLAMATION

By Dr. Otoman Z. Hanish

The greatest need in the world today is for RIGHT EDUCATION. It is only by Right Education being made available to every human being, regardless of material wealth, that the civilization of today shall endure and be improved upon unto ultimate perfection. Each and every person must be given the opportunity to learn and apply those principles and laws of God and Nature which assure to all who use them intelligently , not only health, happiness and prosperity, but also the consciousness and realization of the highest mental and spiritual development.

The world has many organizations and institutions teaching systems of Religion, Philosophy, Science and Sociology. Each of these systems has something good in its teachings or else it could not be. The difficulties are usually found in their methods of application. After you have investigated all organizations and systems, you will find that:

Mazdaznan is the only universal system of education which includes every essential fact, principle and method necessary for the salvation, redemption and emancipation of mankind, and for the social security, welfare, development, unfoldment and perfection of every individual who applies the teachings intelligently in daily life.

"A little knowledge is a dangerous thing." If you are interested in solving the problems of your life, why should you be satisfied with only a partial knowledge when the universal system of Mazdaznan can impart to you, freely and unconditionally, the knowledge of EVERY essential fact and principle you need? Jesus said: "And ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." (St. John: Chapter 8, Verse 32) RIGHT EDUCATION, which means knowledge and understanding of the most important things of life and eternity, is here for you. Take it; use it; keep it; and at the same time, pass it on to your brother man.

The principles and methods of the Mazdaznan System have been known, used and preserved for many thousands of years—ever since Ainyahita, the Mother of the White Race, lived and taught the principles of life and eternity in the mountains and plateaus of Tibet in the dawn of history when God walked and talked with man through His correspondences in the human heart and mind. Zarathushtra, called Zoroaster by the Greeks, proclaimed the same Message in ancient Persia. Ancient Egypt also knew and utilized Mazdaznan methods. Jesus again taught and demonstrated Mazdaznan methods and principles of good thought, good word, good deed; and he was crucified because of his love for humanity. The philosophers of Greece and Rome taught many of the same principles. The prophet Daniel, of Biblical history, together with his closest friends, lived strictly according to Mazdaznan principles; and Nebuchadnezzer, the king of Babylon, found them ten times better in all matters of wisdom and understanding than all the other wise men in his whole realm. Pythagoras, the Father of Greek philosophy, gratefully acknowledged the SOURCE of his teachings to be the Mazdaznan Philosophy of ancient Persia. Mazdaznan teachings have been cherished and protected as priceless pearls of wisdom down through the ages and regardless of the particular names under which the teachings have been presented.

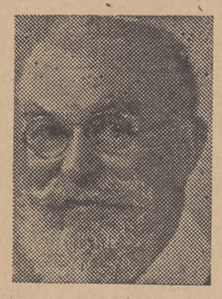
HEALTH-GERMS

By George Starr White, M. D.

HAY FEVER FACTS AND FANCIES

"Hay fever", or "hay asthma", or "rose fever", is a condition that is always prevalent in autumn. The red, swollen eyes and "cold in the head", with difficulty in breathing, are all symptoms that are especially common in the spring and autumn in some parts of the country; and in other parts, such symptoms are common with many persons, during the entire year.



Dr. Geo. Starr White

All these acute catarral symptoms are supposed to be caused by the pollen of weeds or flowers. The fact is that certain dust and vapors and odors will produce the same symptoms.

The very same weeds and flowers at one time of the year will not seem to give the same distressing symptoms as at another time. On the other hand, the very circumstances that will produce the symptoms one year in a person, may not produce them in that person another year .

The observations prove that the condition of the person has a great deal to do with his "catching" this "pollen fever".

The latest fashion in dealing with this distressing neurotic condition is to make a vaccin from all kinds of dirt, pollens, house-moss, dust, etc., and to scratch the skin and vaccinate the susceptible person, first with one vaccin and then with another, until one of them "takes". Then the person is told that the "trouble" is over and that he is made "immune" to what caused the trouble.

There is no lasting immunity against anything, as all observers know. To produce a temporary immunity to one kind of un-health, by vaccination, breaks resistance down in another direction. The victim is liable to have another un-health worse than the one vaccinated against. The breaking of Nature's protection, the skin, opens an avenue for infection. When the skin is broken and a foreign material placed under it, Nature is taken unfair advantage of, and cannot use her natural means of defense.

Keep the skin whole. Never allow any foreign matter to be placed under Nature's wonderful protective covering. The true remedy for all these "neurotic fevers" is correcting the elimination and following a diet that makes the system safe.

As no two persons are just alike, it is difficult to find a diet that will fit any two persons. A plan that works well with many patients is as follows:

First, clear the bowels out well with a good herb mixture.

Second, eat only fruit juices for at least a week, being careful to keep the bowels open.

Third, spray the nose with plain vaseline-oil into which a few drops of oil of cinnamon have been mixed. Or rub a few drops of oil of cinnamon (or oil of certain kinds of mint) on the upper lip, so its penetrating fumes can be inhaled.

After the first week, live mostly on a raw-fruit-and-vegetable diet for several weeks. This procedure will overcome the average attack of hay-fever.

Be sure to do deep abdominal breathing.

Johns Hopkins Prof. Studies 7,000 Smokers

The following article appeared in a recent National Youth Administration paper:

"If you're a heavy smoker and expect to live long at the same time, you've got another guess coming. You can't have your cake and eat it too.

"Dr. Raymond Pearl of Johns Hopkins University has made public the results of a scientific study of the effects of smoking on the longevity of some 7,000 humans.

"Generalized in terms of 100,000 people in each of three groups—heavy smokers, moderate smokers and non-smokers—Dr. Pearl's study makes very dramatic news.

"In each category, the following numbers are still alive at the age of 60; non-smokers—66,564; moderate smokers—61,911; heavy smokers— 46,226..

"Forty cigarettes a day are considered heavy smoking, but even light smokers are appreciably affected.

"Unfortunately, newspapers will not print this information because of lucrative cigarette advertising."

Let's Defend Our Constitution

Editor The Broom:

A little article in the Editorial of The Tribune-Sun referring to Article 10 of The Bill of Rights which reads as follows:

The powers not delegated to the United States by the constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people. And that Judge Curtis D. Wilbur, of San Francisco, remarked a "curious drift" of decissions of the United States supreme court in recent years in regard to rights of states. Lately, he said, the court had come to regard the word of congress as final.

Judge Wilbur's statement is no doubt true, but is not that a terrible indictment of our congress?

If congress is setting itself up as regulatory to the Constitution rather than the Constitution reglating congress, it is time that we the people rise in defense of our Constitution.

Now, let us draw an imaginary case. Suppose a state enacts a law prohibiting me from molesting you. The Constitution does not delegate the state to enact that law, nor does it prohibit it from doing so. That law is perfectly valid with all intents and purpose of the Constitution. But if the state enacts a law to prohibit you or me from building a home on our own property, that would invalidate The Bill of Rights.

The Constitution is so plain and specific a child 10 years old can interpret it. The intent of the Constitution is to keep the officials from enacting laws that would abrogate the privileges or immunities of the citizens. That is the power not delegated to the state.

The Constitution of the United States can be amended only to the extent that the amendment does not annul the basic or primary purpose or principle of the Constitution.

I am standing back of you for bringing officials to task for not living up to their sworn duty. The President, the congressmen, the Sentors, the Supreme Court Judges. The judges of the several states are all sworn into office to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution, so it is their duty to bring charges against all officials who perjure themselves by not living up to their sworn duty. The people of the United States should not accept an oath from our officials as mere oratory, but a solemn duty.

Religious Freedom, Like Russia

Early E. W. Duncan, commanding officer at Lowry Field, Colorado, has decreed that under his command the men cannot worship any other God, but Franklin Delano Roosevelt, the "State-God" of the U. S. A.

DENVER,—Col. E. W. Duncan, comanding officer of the army air corps' Lowry Field, has announced that he will class as "out of bounds" for soldiers, any church whose pastor "continues to preach against true Americanism by opposing the definite policy of the president."

"We are preparing for war," Duncan said.

"I will not, under any circumstances, permit soldiers to attend any meeting or visit any place," where they might "be instilled with thoughts and ideas harmful to morale."

Freedom of the "Seize"

WASHINGTON,—United States and Latin American business men have flooded the state and commerce departments with a batch of fresh complaints about interception of commercial mail at Bermuda, Trinidad and other points by the British ministry of economic warfare. Censorship was relaxed for a while after intervention by the late Lord Lothian, then ambassador to the United States, but apparently has been resumed now in more drastic form than existed when S. Burton Heath first called attention to the situation in New York Whirligig last January 21.

Venezuelan interests complain that air mail taken off for examination at Trinidad has been held up for as much as nine days. Our people returning from Argentina and Brazil on U. S. ships report that they were subjected at the same port to intensive questioning about private commerical affairs. Businessmen of both countries have marked air mail for shipment by the west coast so as to escape British inspection. But postal clerks frequently are careless, and this precaution against correspondence falling into British hands has been only partially successful.

The United Fruit company, according to a confidential report to the commerce department, became enraged and routed all but one ship a week so as not to stop at Jamaica. The Grace Line, in service to Venezuela, Panama and Columbia, discontinued stops at Bermuda. The U. S. Maritime commission permitted these revisions of schedule, indicating this agency's resentment against the interference with trade. Secretary Jones has under consideration a plan whereby Pan-American planes bearing mail would land within the boundaries of our new bases on the intervening islands. He may decide on this change unless the state department persuades the British, whose vigilance is understandable, to let up.

Editor Resigns From San Diego Forum

At a heated directors meeting of the San Diego Radio Forum, Thursday evening, C. Leon de Aryan, originator of the Forum, was told by George Baird, program chairman, that "the Forum would be better off without de Aryan. I have received many protests against de Aryan's appearance on our Forum".

Since various matters about the choice of topics and speakers and arranging of programs came up for a thorough airing and the majority of the members present at voting time were New Dealers, Baird received a vote of "confidence" and naturally de Aryan turned in his resignation since he does not intend to impose his presence on a forum that "would be better off without him". It was agreed that the editor finish out a religious educational forum program with Rev. J. L. Boyer and Rev. Laurence Forristal, after which his resignation becomes effective, that he may not further offend the ears of our San Diego audiences.

Lester Penry, local attorney, is the moderator of the Forum and chairman of the board of directors.

Three Prowl Cars After David de Aryan

Now that fog and cloudy weather produces that eerie effect in the morning hours, and David was delivering the East San Diego Press last Friday and was mistaken for a prowler, somebody turned in an alarm. From various directions first two police cars converged upon him and as the mist was getting heavy, David noticed a third one. Of course, when he identified himself the mystery of the prowler around people's homes was solved.

By Charles H. Ingersoll
(Of Dollar Watch Fame)

NEW YORK.—The C. C. of N. Y. expose should be of wonderful utility in leading us to the discovery of the vast sabotage we are suffering at the hands of our 'higher' educational system — our high schools, colleges, and universities.

Ingersoll

The C. C.. picture, although extreme, shows how many of our millions of teachers have lost their normal teaching function and become cult propagandists. Defenders and apologists will try to make a goat of the City College, just as that remarkable institution tries to make goats of a few of its most honest Communistic teachers.

Really interested and intelligent investigators will not fail to go up the scale to the biggest universities and super-universities, like the Teachers College, to find the actual source of education subversive to democracy, which now pervades every department of our society and fosters toleration for the manifold attacks on the individualism that was our ideal, and toleration for the Socialism that is a cheap travesty on the social principles that should parallel and make permanent our individualist institutions. .

If Lindbergh said 'white is white', would that ridiculous statement be allowed to go unchallenged by zealots, such as Bullitt, Thompson and Willkie? Now the Colonel's rather harmless reflection on the atmospheric background of Greenland is held up to scorn by a fellow air-craftsman.

I suggest that henceforth Lindy avoid all statements of fact, and confine himself to pure theory and conjecture.

Here's a bedtime story I heard: Once there was a man who was shipwrecked. He swam to a strange island, and took possession. .I think his name was Crusoe. He found there a native whom he employed for a few years at nominal wages. But then, having gotten the land in good shape to bear fine crops, he decided he need not pay his man, Friday, and so notified him. Friday protested, but finally said that he would work for himself. Crusoe, however, asserted his ownership and refused permission. They finally compromised on half the previous wage, which gave Friday a bare living.

And if you use a little imagination, you will see how 'private land ownership' works to keep wages down.

Democracy—with little 'd'— stands for man's inalienable rights, as reflected in natural law and interpreted by science. And the science is that of Political Economy or Economics.

It is a low concept of the Editorial function for an economic journal to admit material, broadly without censorship as to its authenticity or soundness. I have heard this concept elaboratly stated, and I have for decades observed its workout in filling up potenitally valuable space with waste-or-worse-material.

The statement has reminded me of the plausable assertion of the Socratic concept of teaching, culminating in the absurdity of:—'We don't teach any school of economics; we give them everything there is, and let them get what they can out of it!'

That freedom of thought and of the press displace editorial responsibility for discrimination, in the sort of mental and economic food served to readers, is indeed a new idea. Socrates and Freedom are indeed hallowed subjects that can, however, be made cloaks for illiterate and mental lassitude.

Here Is More Proof That Our System Breeds Dictators

October 6 release of The Washington Merry-go-round (Pearson and Allen):

"Not many outside the White House know it, but the State Department gave the President some urgent advice the other day to make public the fact that the Pink Star, sunk near Iceland and flying the Panamanian flag, was carrying a four-inch gun on her deck. Subsequently the President announced the fact to his press conference.

"Prior to that it had been a military and naval secret that the government of the United States had been arming Panamanian ships. It was such a secret that the government of Panama itself didn't know it. Nor did the State Department know it until about the time the Pink Star was sunk.

"Not even the Coast Guard knew it for a while, and almost got into an argument with a Panamanian ship sailing out of New York Harbor the other day because she carried a gun on her deck. The Coast Guard had not been told that the gun had been placed there by the United States Navy at the direct orders of the President himself."

The effect of arming merchant ships is to release the enemy from the obligation, otherwise binding, of giving notice of an intended attack; the enemy is expected, in self-defense, to attack armed ships without notice, and on sight.

New Long Distance Cable

Long distance telephone lines between Los Angeles and San Francisco, which are carrying a constantly increasing traffic load as a result of demands of national defense, will be augmented at a cost of $1,750,000 by a new cable between Newhall and Stockton, connecting at both ends with facilities leading into the two great California metropolitan centers.

This anouncement came from A V. Engel, manager of the Southern California Telephone Company, who reported that the company's application for authority to undertake the project has been approved by the Federal Communications Commission and that work will be started next month and, if materials can be obtained, is expected to be completed before the end of 1942.

Mr. Engel stated that the new long distance schedule is in addition to numerous others carried ahead this year. Among these were construction of a $1,000,000 underground cable between Santa Ana and Del Mar to handle growing Los Angeles-San Diego traffic; building of numerous lines across the desert to increase facilities to Salt Lake City and provide a new connection with Los Angeles-Kingman transcontinental line, approximately $915,000, and placing of a new underground cable between Los Angeles and Newhall in an existing conduit, $325,000.

SURELY AFTER HIM

"I regret to tell you that I must have a raise," said the clerk as he tiptoed into the office of the boss.

"What makes you think you should," growled the boss.

"I might mention that there are three companies after me," began the clerk.

"Oh, of course that puts a different face on the matter," replied the boss, more cordially. "I can't have my competitors taking away my best men. But by the way what companies are after you?"

"The gas, water and finance companies," truthfully answered the clerk.

N. Y. WOMAN HAS UNIQUE IDEA FOR PEACE

Up at 110th Street & Fifth Avenue, New York City, is located the "Peace House" founded about 17 years ago by Mrs. J. Sergeant Cram.

Mrs. Cram is the great granddaughter of Peter Cooper, founder of Cooper Union, the first free school of design in the United States.

At the "Peace House" she has an auditorium, where she exhibits peace posters indicating the plain mania of senselessness that is modern war. In this room peace-minded citizens from New York City and other parts of the country gather to discuss means for counteracting the vicious acid of pro-war propaganda. Mrs. Cram, through her advertising in the daily newspapers of New York, Chicago, St. Louis, Philadelphia and in the national religious press has made the force of her efforts felt all over the United States.

Mrs. Cram holds firmly to a sincere belief that the United States can best assist world peace by keeping peace herself. Mrs. Cram's immediate concern is to secure sufficient understanding in the American public to insure it against a repetition of the catastrophe of 1917.

Council Seeks Legal Ruling On Meat Ordinance

An opinion from the city attorney on the constitutionality of a controversial ordinance which would limit the sale of fresh, frozen, uncured or uncooked meats to the hours between 8 a. m. and 6 p. m. has been sought by the city council.

The measure first was suggested by San Diego Local 229, Amalgamated Meatcutters and Butcher Workmen of North America, A. F. L., in February, councilmen reported. They since have been deluged with petitions and form postcards urging its enactment.

Such legislation, according to the wording of the cards, "would regulate the sale of meats to conform to the hours of inspection . . . " and would provide "a greater safeguard to public health and welfare . . . "

Walter Cooper, city manager, informed the council that Dr. Alex Lesem, city-county health director, feels that such an ordinance "is not essential to public health". One councilman also pointed out that if sale of meat were made to conform to the hours inspectors normally are on duty, meat markets would have to close at 5 p. m. week days and at noon Saturdays.

However, Councilmen said that before they consider further the advisability of passing the ordinance, they want a ruling on its legality.

"Again and Again"

WASHINGTON,—A more disturbing Nazi threat to go into Spain has been heard by the official ear. A special task force of the U. S. army and marines has been prepared to seize the Spanish and Portuguese islands in that case. The force is composed of a division of the marines and the First division of the army (which has no draftees and could go outside the western hemisphere). In command is the marine corps general Holland Smith. A second similar task force is being prepared in full secrecy.

The Spanish government is noticeably shaky. Food shortage is causing economic chaos. About 4000 cases of typhus have developed among the civil population although these have not been publicly reported as yet.—Paul Mallon.

If Hitler is anxoius to see the American people stripped of their property and political power all he needs to do is to attend to Europe and let Nudealers do their stuff. He could not possibly match what they have already done. A Hitler invasion threat is a strawman to divert attention from what is going on here.

THE ANSWER of NATURE HERSELF

For twenty years I have sought through the columns of my wekely newspaper (and by occasional letters in other publications) to show that economics is a science as exact as any science and that we can, by resort to natural law (and regardless of the morals of men), solve our social problems as we solve shop problems.

That experience taught me that presentation is too fragmentary and that I must write a book. That book is now ready. It is named The Answer by Nature Herself—Written by L. D. Beckwith from her Notes.

Just as the multiplication tables contain Nature's answers to all questions in that field; so does this book contain Nature's answers to all questions in this field.

Two hundred-sixty copies of the Answer were sold in nineteen states and Canada before any one had seen a copy of it—150 copies by mail from the outside: 18 in New York. 14 in Pennsylvania, 11 in Illinois, Canada 3.

A book in dialogue, 240 pages containing 105 conversations, well printed, sewed in flexible fabricoid covers.
